

I do not want banks calling and harrassing me. I have a bank, if I want to change I will do so on my own decision. They can use the television, radio, newspaper or any other type of advertising. As long as they are not calling me at home during my time with my family. Thank you